

BOSTON RED SOX MANNY DELCARMEN, SPORT SUPPLY GROUP, ELMWOOD LITTLE LEAGUE AMONG HONOREES AT GOOD SPORTS 6th LEGENDS OF THE BALL

WHAT: Good Sports will host its annual Legends of the Ball event recognizing New England athletes and organizations for their commitment to youth sports. Good Sports' mission is to increase youth participation in sports, fitness and recreation by making equipment accessible to disadvantaged and disabled youth.

This year's honorees, along with the New England sports community will help Good Sports celebrate nearly $4 million of athletic equipment provided to area schools, community centers and leagues in the past six years.

Boston Red Sox Manny Delcarmen has partnered with Good Sports to host numerous events to benefit Boston youth and has been an incredible role model for area youth.

Sport Supply Group has continually contributed to Good Sports both financially and through equipment donations. They have helped provide thousands of kids the opportunity to play.

The Elmwood Little League has been serving disadvantaged youth for over 54 years. Today, they help over 700 kids stay engaged in healthy, safe activities.

Good Sports Legends of the Ball will also feature silent and live auctions for sought-after New England sports memorabilia and one of kind experiences. Tom Caron and Glenn Ordway will emcee the event, with a musical performance by the Ultrasonic Rock Orchestra.
